

I emphatically OPPOSE any further loosening of restrictions as to the cross-ownership rules of broadcast stations and newspapers, as well as increased ownership percentages in a given market. I feel that the proposed rule changes would be detrimental to the public's access to diverse programming as well as harmful to small-business.

Respectfully,
Brad Shurter